Our Mission:

We want our media programming to reflect an enjoyment of life in the rocky mountain region, while still inspiring viewers to consider eternity. We will not just tell people how to follow Jesus, but show all the advantages of a life that's best fulfilled when we give God access to all areas of our lives. Our programming provokes people to think about their true purpose on this earth and how following the teachings of Jesus is a key, not a barrier, to living a truly fulfilled life.
